DESIGNATED EATING SECTION

Beginning Monday, there will be six tables set aside in the library as a "Designated Eating Section." Those using these tables must throw their rubbish in the outside bin and wipe the tables after eating. Why am I doing this? Because library and custodial staff are tired of cleaning up after you! Those who eat or drink in the non-designated areas will be: banned from the library, made to scrape gum or given a referral. Let's see how this trial procedure works. - G. Kobayashi
